SPIN THE DRAMA

Spin The Drama is the place that was created to talk every month about the Dramas around this fandom. On this first edition we couldn't pass the most 3 talked dramas that keep existing.

NIALL HORAN & DEMI LOVATO? NEMI.

Everybody knows that Nemi has been one of the most issues talked in 1Derland. Demi was always been known has Niall's crush, and things got serious when Demi said that Niall Horan was his crush too. Most of Directioners didn't like it and started to investigate. Then comes Nemi's Drama, when Demi introduced her Niall to her sisters, and it got more serious when it was said on twitter that Niall and Demi have been talking through SKYPE and that he had sent her flowers. The Drama started being forgotten when Demi said that she just wanted to focus on her career and that Niall was only a good friend, but when her birthday day arrived and Niall tweeted her wishing her a Happy Birthday, Nemi resurrected.

The truth is that Niall and Demi are just good friends. There's no need to start a drama. It doesn't matter the opinion that we have about Demi or Niall, because their happiness is the most important, even though we don't know what can happen tomorrow.

You can relax Directioners, because Niall plays in the singles club and he still in the game.

HARRY, HOW MANY TATTOOS?

One of the Dramas that hitted this fandom last couple months was definitely the number of tattoos that Harry has been doing. The youngest member become a fan of this "fashion style" of painting moments and memories on his body. The tattoos things always were connected with zayn, but now are part of Harry's life too. It all started with a five-edged star that each edge means each member of the band, and his last was his number on the X-Factor.

Keep calm Directioners, tattoos exists since ever and Harry is the only one who decides if he wants to do more or not. Everyone likes to keep memories with them, and Harry decided to keep them this way. Some people might like, some people don't, but the truth is that Harry look good in every way, right?

SPIN THE DRAMA

ELEANOR CALDER AND PERRIE EDWARDS.

CONTRACT OR LOVE?

Since the beginning, both of these relationships were a target of the question if they were a real relationship. But even though lots of Directioners believe that Eleanor and Zerrrie are real, there are some who believe that Eleanor is part of a deal to get Larry Stylinson far away from the spotlights, and that Perrie started dating Zayn to make Little Mix getting known through One Direction, which means more Dramas.

The truth is that if this was all truth they both would deserve an Oscar for such a good performance, don't ya think? Don't you think it's enough of all these Dramas? We don't know what might happen tomorrow, but if Louis is with Eleanor and Zayn is with Perrie we must respect them. Even if you don't like seeing them together if that's what makes them happy, then respect them. Can you imagine if you were one of the boys girlfriend and then you were getting hate because of it, can you imagine how bad you would feel? How it would hurt your feelings?

Do you think that that is correct? Of course it's not.

Dr. Z

EVERYBODY KNOWS THAT IF ZAYN MALIK WASN'T A MEMBER OF ONE DIRECTION WE WOULD BE A PSYCHOLOGIST. WE CAN ALWAYS SURPRISE US WITH HIS QUOTES. QUOTES THAT SOMETIMES HELP OTHER PEOPLE ON HOW TO SURVIVE TO THEIR DRAMAS..

Miley Cyrus New Look

Few weeks ago Miley Cyrus shocked everyone when she appeared with a new hair color and a new haircut that made her being a target of criticism. Probably the reason why people got shocked was because they didn't know why she did that.

The main reason of this change was that Miley's hair was donated to an institution of people that are victims of cancer. Although all the hate comments she never cared about it and she appeared in the VMA's with all of her class and glamour. Miley is happy with her new look and most important she show us that it's good to change and not to care about what others might say.

DR. Z WOULD SAY:

*"No matter how many people try to criticize you,
the best revenge is to prove them wrong."*

Robsten? What was supposed to be forever had an end?

Since Stephanie Meyer shown us who Bella Swan and Edward Cullen were, not only in her books but also in the theatres, Kristen Stewart and Robert Pattinson the eternal lovers of the Twilight Saga made that their romance become a real life thing, Robsten was their name as a couple. Everything was going great until Kristen getting involved with the producer of "The Snow White and The Huntsman". The couple broke up but it seems that Robert still have feelings for his "Bella".

The truth is that we all make mistakes, we are humans and nobody is perfect. Kristen is human, she made a mistake but she was brave enough to admit it publicly, she had this courage and we should think before we speak.

To both sides of the relation, Dr.Z would say his famous quote:

"Never look back, reminising on yesterday, smile for the future, tomorrow's a new day."

Justin Bieber's evolution

This year seems to be THE year and Justin Bieber is just a proof of that. He changed his look, he changed his music style and this change we can see it in his newest album, Believe. A grown up album that is totally different when he used to sing "One Time" flipping his hair.

This made Beliebers have different point of views on his change and it wasn't all. The truth is that since Bieber's new look, this more mature look and his new tour around the world he caught people's attention like he did when he first sang "Baby". It seems that Justin Bieber turned the page and the quote

"There comes a day when you realize turning the page is the best feeling in the world, because you realize there's so much more to the book than the page you were stuck on."

fits perfectly for his situation. It seems that Dr. Z strikes again with his advices.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY LIAM

Dear Liam Payne,

Let's be honest, we have no idea how to start this letter. Talking to you, or about you is not easy. When our love for you born, it grown so fast that we just wanted to go after it.

In your audition day, you were just another one in a million, but you were the one, you know? In that day you were the face of courage, of determination, strength, you were the biggest proof ever that dreams do come true if we chase after them. We will never have words or the most perfect way to thank you for this lesson that you showed us. You become our inspiration, an inspiration for millions and millions of people, young people who have dreams too. You don't need that much for doing good things, you don't need to work hard to make things work perfectly, you just need to be yourself: the best person in this world.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY LIAM

Thank you for the hours you spent every day with us, for every minute that you focus your attention only in us, for every second that you make us feel the most special fans in the world. Thank you for the smiles, for the jokes, for the comfort words. Thanks for every conquer of yours, because it's those conquers that inspire us and make us find strength to fight for our dreams. Thank you for being always by our side.

Nothing make us happier than your victories and we are ready for more. Between all of this love and pride, we are a family tied with unbreakable ties. You are part of our past, our present, and even not knowing what the future will bring us, you teach us every day how to be a better person.

Every day we feed our dreams and every day we are a step closer to achieve them. You are one of our dreams, and thanks to you we live with something that make us happy.

If one day this just stays in us as a memory, trust us that nothing will be unsaid and undone. And remember: What is true doesn't go away, always stay.

Happy Birthday Daddy Direction

Everything about... Ricardo

Name: Ricardo

Age: 17

Country: Portugal

1D's Favorite Song: More Than This

Twitter: <http://twitter.com/jemanpach>

- FOR HOW LONG DO YOU CALL YOURSELF A DIRECTIONER AND HOW DID YOU MEET THE BAND ?

"Actually I don't know exactly when I start calling myself a directioner, but it's not that recent. I met the band when I was in my room zapping on youtube and then I saw Harry's audition, and I liked it. So I tried to research on Harry Styles and then I found One Direction. In that time they weren't famous like they are now, people didn't know who they were, that was when I start to listen to them and I kept looking for more and more things about them, and it became my "hobbie" when I was in my computer."

- WHAT DOES ONE DIRECTION MEAN TO YOU?

"To be honest, I won't say that they mean the world for me and I would die for them. I'm a fan, a big fan actually, besides their songs and the meaning of their songs, their personality is also very important to a fan.

They are amazing people, and it's beautiful to see how strong their friendship is. I'm not an obsessed fan (I let that for the girls), but I'm a fan, a big one.

Furthermore I have a huge connection with them, because they have the same dream as me and they could make it. And I work day by day to achieve it too. They had to wait for their time to shine, and my time will come too. They are an inspiration."

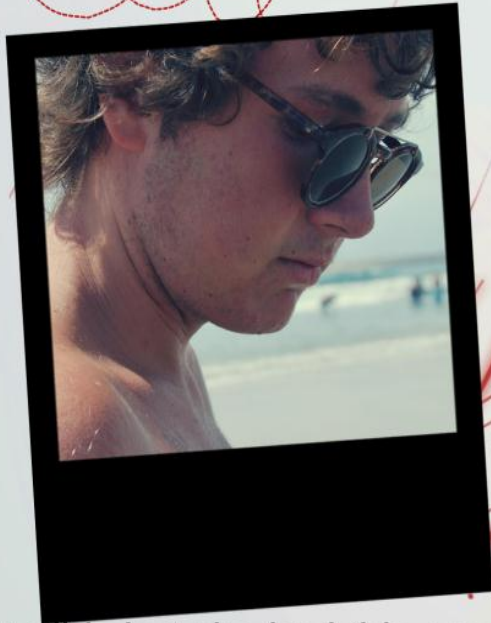

Everything about... Ricardo

- DO YOU THINK THAT THERE IS ANY KIND OF PREJUDICE FOR BEING A FAN OF FIVE BOYS WHEN MOST OF THEIR FANS ARE GIRLS? IF YES, DID YOU EVER FEEL DISCRIMINATED?

"Yes, of course there is discrimination for being a fan of a boy band. In my opinion, being a fan of a boy band or even a male artist is a normal thing, although that society have stereotypes for "this" people. Every guy that says that is a fan of One Direction, Justin Bieber (mainly him), it's gay, what makes me believe that this society is stuck on the past.

I already experienced that, I was victim of discrimination by some guys just because I like One Direction. At the beginning I couldn't believe that people didn't recognize their talent or that there weren't other boys that liked 1D like me. But I don't care about what society says anymore, it's not their business.

I'm sad about lots of boys directioners who pretend not to like them anymore just because of what others will make fun of them."

- MOST OF THEIR FANS, GIRLS, START BEING A FAN OF THEM BECAUSE OF THEIR APPEARANCE. WHAT ABOUT YOU?

"In my case, what made me start liking the band wasn't because of how they looked, not at all. Although I don't appreciate other men, I have notion that they are 5 handsome boys who have the world on their hands. Being a fan just because of their look it's not correct. Some of the best singers don't have to look good to be good. Just look at Susan Boyle's example, she looked terribly but she had this amazing voice. But lots of fans, that's if you can consider them a "fan", think that way, what in my opinion it's wrong."

Everything about... Ricardo

- DO YOU HAVE A FAVORITE MEMBER? IF YES, WHO AND WHY?

"I don't have a favorite, because when they are on stage they become one and only, either on stage either being part of the band. That's how I see them, each one is the way it is, all different but all equal."

- SOMETIMES OUR FEELINGS FOR THIS BAND ARE HYSTERICAL. WE SCREAM, WE CRY, WE JUMP AROUND... DOES THE SAME HAPPEN TO YOU? OR, ALTHOUGH YOU FEEL THE SAME YOU ARE CALMER?

"Yes yes, I'm extremely calm. I don't scream or jump when I see a picture of them. It's the same when they win awards. I get very happy for them, I just want to scream

"YOU GUYS ARE THE BEST", but I'm still calm, not because of what others might say, it's just because I am an emotionally controlled person."

- FOR YOU, WHAT IS BEING A FAN OF ONE DIRECTION ?

For me, being a fan of One Direction is like being a fan of other singers and bands; of course it's special for us, like others bands are for their fans, but honestly, being a fan is to have proud, joy on our idols, having their songs with us, and most important, being true to them.

- WHAT DO YOU WISH FOR THE BAND'S FUTURE ?

"As a fan I wish that they stay together, that they never split up, and they keep making good music like they do. As a person, I want them to flourish and develop their own lives and their careers, a future good love life, and that everything goes well. Everything good for them, that's what I wish.."

3 WORDS, THAT FOR YOU DESCRIBE THE BAND:

Friendship. Talent. Leadership!

FASHION LOU

With the arrival of the new season and the school returning, the One Direction Magazine thought of you and we spoke with a fashion specialist that will give you the best advices to stay fashion all the time. Lou Tommo made 4 looks for you to be inspired, and each one of them has an essential rule.

DRESS HEALTHY

Carrots are good for the eyes, apples make your intestines work correctly and fish reduces cholesterol. Never forget to use an accessory, I would choose hats.

Even though school time is back, going out with your friends stills on your mind that's why I picked up this look for you, it's very comfortable, but with the biggest new in this season:

EVERYTIME YOU GO OUT WITH YOUR FRIENDS, GO BAREFOOT.

BEING COMFORTABLE is the word that describes this season. Nothing else to say.

Going back to the ACCESSORIES, don't forget that they are very important for you to be on your best, actually that's why I created this hat on my own that will be the key for the success

I hope that my tips have helped you. And don't forget:

Beauty is a religion.

Louis!!

Dear Niall Horan,

I admit that sometimes I really do wonder if you exist. There is a part of every girls heart that dreams with her prince charming but I think that every directioner already look at you like our prince charming, because you really are. You make us feel like your princesses, every one of us.

I know, I know that I love you, when I open a magazine and I see your words on it. I know that I love you when I listen to music and I hear your voice. I know that I love you, when the sun heats my face and I think that maybe the same sun is doing the same thing with you. I know that I love you, when I look to sky and look for you sitting on the moon. You make me feel good, you make feel safe, you make feel like I could live another day. If I could only ask for one hug in my life I would ask for yours

Some people say that perfection can't exist, but I think they're wrong. you are an amazing human being and if someone tells you the opposite, they're lying. you have the ability to put a smile on my face, every single day, and for me, that is perfection, because you don't do everything right but you put a smile on the faces of millions and millions of people.

And like you said, you came a long way from just a boy from Mullingar, and you know why? Because the fact that you are from Mullingar it's not the most important thing. You came a long way because you dream about that, because you work to make YOUR dream come true, because you ALWAYS believe that this is possible. You deserve everything in this life, because you are a special guy and you make us feel so special in our own way.

I'm sorry for everything that I forgot to say, because for a people like you, this letter, this words are not enough. This whole world is not enough for you. I wish I could tell you this face to face but there's never the opportunity, never the place. So this letter will have to do, "my special boy". I love you.

Happy Birthday Nialler!

Two years ago, at the beginning of this amazing journey we could never expected what the future would bring us.

Who doesn't remember the first time you heard Niall, Liam, Harry, Louis and Zayn's voice that caught our attention?

If anyone ever doubted these boys, those doubts are now totally excluded because these boys are in the top of the music industry. It all started when they become the first british band on the number one top in the US album charts, that was when they become history in the industrial music history. We all knew that with these boys everything was possible, and winning a Brit Award only made us be more sure of it. Directioners were proud of it, we voted every single day and so we are their pride too.

On the 7th September, the power of this Fandom and the talent of our boys were proved when the boys won. Not one, neither two, but three Moon Man's on Music Video Awards 2012. We believed and we achieved it. Tears of pride streamed down our faces mixed with smiles that showed the joy on our hearts. The nerves and the fingers crossed until we hear your name making history again. Your success is our success.

CONGRATULATIONS ONE DIRECTION AND DIRECTIONERS, for the 3 victories in those three nominations. Keep making us proud.

One Direction golden moments

Zayn: "We were in malabami"

Liam: "Where is venezuela on the map?"

Niall (on his pet peeves):

"Rabbits. they are pointless. do nothing"

harry: "I was wearing new jeans today and have just realized i went the whole day with the sticker on my leg.."

Liam: "Portugal? they speak spanish there right?"

Niall: "Today was a busy week for us!"

Louis: "Do you mean the full breast or just the nipple?"

Zayn: "Connecticut! my town!"

Tour Around the Boys

If we look at us, as Directioners, we see that we all have our Professional Detective side. Everyone knows that we are better than the FBI. The 1D Magazine, in the middle of one of its investigations, sleepless nights somewhere in the bushes, we found out where the band has been lately.

4 TH AUGUST

Harry was at Funky Buddha club with Andy, Liam's best friend.

10TH AUGUST

Liam and Niall were at Funky Budda club at Josh's birthday party (band's drummer) and Joey's friend. At the party were also Liam's best friends, Andy and Maz.

11TH AUGUST

Tom Daley hit the fame and "Go Tom" was Louis' favorite tweet for a few days. Obviously, he didn't lost his chance to watch live the Olympics final with Eleanor. The couple was happier than ever.

14TH AUGUST

We found Harry at a Park in London with his friends.

16TH AUGUST

We decided to go back to Funky Buddha Club, and this time we found Liam again, with Danielle, Andy and Tom Daley

Tour Around the Boys

If we look at us, as Directioners, we see that we all have our Professional Detective side. Everyone knows that we are better than the FBI. The 1D Magazine, in the middle of one of its investigations, sleepless nights somewhere in the bushes, we found out where the band has been lately.

18TH AND 19TH AUGUST

We invaded the V Festival and we found Harry and the most perfect couples in this world. Harry was with some friends while Louis, Liam, Eleonor and Danielle were having fun. On the 19th august, we found Zayn at the G.A.Y. club..

22ND AUGUST

Liam and Louis made girls scream in London while riding a bike

25TH AUGUST

Ok, we hope you've noticed that Funky Buddha Club is "THE CLUB" in London. This time Harry and Liam, plus Danielle, Maz, Andy and Josh and more friends were together to celebrate Liam's 19th Birthday.

Larry Stylinson ?!

“Larry Stylinson” is for this fandom the same as an anthem for it’s country or a religion for it’s people. So even though we know that there are people who really love this bromance, don’t you think that this is exaggerating ? This subject has surpassed all it’s limits, it’s not acceptable anymore. When the boys formed the band we saw their relationship growing day by day, a relationship that will stay like this forever.

Anyone could see, even the ones that were with less attention that Harry and Louis were the more close to each other, and that’s why that we can define their friendship as a truly one, named as “Larry Stylinson”. At the beginning, on the X Factor, both families, friends, girlfriends and everyone else became a fan of them. Their friends used to play with them by tweeting things about them. But isn’t it sad to watch how far this have come ?

Today we see Lou’s and Haz’s families upset with this issue, even themselves don’t like this anymore like they used to. And not forgetting that Louis’ girlfriend is constantly attacked by “fans” saying that she is the reason why Louis and Harry “broke up”. So, we figured out where is our big problem, and thinking of that the 1D Magazine created a list of the things that you must learn about the “Larry Stylinson of today’s”

- 1- Louis and Harry are friends (ONLY FRIENDS)
- 2- The sentence “Harry will always be Louis boyfriend” don’t match with Larry
- 3- Eleanor is Louis’ girlfriend and she isn’t the reason why Louis and Harry separated (this never happened, why you think that?!)
- 4 - Louis is not betraying Harry just because he has a girlfriend, and one day when Harry has a girlfriend he will not be betraying Louis
- 5--Harry can have more friends and he can go out with them, there’s no problem with that
- 6 -A real friendship doesn’t mean you have to be with your buddy 24/7. You just have to carry him in your heart wherever you go. To conclude, you might not found pictures of them together daily like you used to, but that doesn’t mean they aren’t friends anymore.

Larry Stylinson ?!

At the end, we just want Directioners to understand that Larry's friendship never changed, and it never will. But they are just friends. Larry is forever, so is this fandon, but you have to learn how to respect it. We owe that to them.

And that's how we end this drama about this subject.

Thanks

Well, we couldn't say goodbye without thanking the boys because without them this would be impossible. Harry Styles, Niall Horan, Zayn Malik, Louis Tomlinson and Liam Payne thank you for all that you have been teaching us along these two years.

Thank you Ricardo Pacheco, a Portuguese Boy Directioner that helped us on our first fans interviews subject.

We want to thanks to Kat for the amazing job by designing this magazine, to Jesse for her amazing English and the translations, to Rii, Cat and Trish for their writing talent, and we couldn't forget to say thank you to all the members of Portugal Needs 1D group, that made us brothers and sisters.

Last but not least, a huge thank you for all our readers and Directioners from all around the world for making this Fandom worth it.

ps: we're very sorry for any possible mistake with the english.
